"WHEREAS we believe the current government of the United States of American to be an unlawful and illegal one, operating contrary to the wishes and interests of a majority of the people of that nation, and contrary to the best interest and safety of the world community and---

"WHEREAS all legal and constitutional mechanism for change has been unduly and illegally channeled away from the people of the United States and the world community and---

"WHEREAS there is no promise of any present or future attempt of the current government of the United States to return the power of government to the people of the United States of America;

"WE DO HEREBY DECLARE the existence and intent of a National Liberation Front fighting force within the continental confines of the United States of America, to be actively engaged in a People's War Of Revolution against the afore named nation, and to support all legal and recognized revolutionary forces currently in operation throughout the world.

"WE DO HEREBY DECLARE a State of Revolution to be existing within the United States of America, and we call upon the United Nations to recognize uniformed armed combatants of Force LARGO (Liberation Army,

"An Explanation to the citizenary of Northern California concerning the Purpose and Method of the Revolution to be waged in Northern California--

"LARGO is the designation of the Liberation Army of Revolutionary Group Organizations, a fighting force of men and women dedicated to the over*throwal of the United States government by the use of force. After March 15, 1970 a fully trained, equipped and manned army of revolution will be operating in Northern California. Plans and training procedures for this organization have been conducted within the confines of California, and we believe ourselves to be suffieicint numbers at this crucial time to motivate a nationwide uprising. During the mo~~n~~ths that follow we will offer the public more material as to our benevolent purpose toward the people of the world. You will notice that our material is badly printed. This is due to the fact that printing devices, even those operating within private premises, are traceable by federal police state, necessitating the disguising if any mass produced material.

"We do not know what path the federal forces will follow. To keep civilian casualties to a minimum, we are establishing a set of qualifications which we will unswervingly follow to regulate the war against the oppressive federal government.

"Initially we will limit our attacks to installations directly under control of federal forces or their allies. The acts of a~~g~~ression will be against property only, and in all cases combat will be limited only by federal forces in control of the various attack points.

"In the revolution, all those who bear arms in service of the established governm~~n~~et-to-be-disposed are considered members of the federal forces, because of their ability and orders to destroy, apprehend, kill and detain soldiers of the National Liberation Front. This includes members of local police forces, the California Highway Patrol, California Border Patrol, members of county sheriff departments, uniformed armed members of the National Guard, and all federal troops on duty, in uniform, and armed. Un-uniformed groups of individuals are traditionally treated as counterinsurgents.

SF 100-65032

"A soldier of the Revolution will be dressed in a military manner, uniformly with other members of the striking force to which he belongs, In case of extreme emergency, when a soldier of LARGO must bear arms without notice, he will identify himself throughout the action with a red armband on the left arm.

"Civilians coming into contact with soldiers of the revolution should immediately identify themselves, their location and non-combatent status, Do not identify yourself as a sympathiser unless this is a true statement. Your rights will be honored and your safety taken into primary consideration regardless of belief.

"Our war against the Federal Forces will be conducted on a program of gradual acceleration, as efforts to eliminate LARGO increase. At each step of the escalation a statement of procedure will be published in order to insure the safety of warzone residents. POWER TO THE PEOPLE, WE SHALL NOT FAIL!!!

During the month of March 1970, various Northern California counties such as Humboldt, Mendocino and Siskiyou reported they received the above threatening literature by mail.

On March 20, 1970, the "San Francisco Examiner", a daily San Francisco newspaper, carried an article entitled "Terrorist Group A 'Paper Tiger'". The following is a copy of this article:

Terrorist Group A 'Paper Tiger'

By Ed Montgomery

LARGO, a newly founded revolutionary group which last week threatened widespread death and destruction, is just a paper tiger in the opinion of intelligence agents.

For one thing, they point out, dedicated revolutionaries don't advertise.

On March 11, the "underground" National Liberation Front Continental Armed Services Division of the Liberation Army Revolutionary Group Organization (LARGO) sent letters to officials in various Northern California counties threatening all manner of dire things.

An unsigned "Declaration of Entity and of Purpose," denounced the federal government and warned:

"All citizens are hereby notified that a state of revolution shall begin March 15. All power to the people."

The letters threatened destruction of "installations directly under the control of federal forces or their allies."

Included in the allies category and "subject to attack" were listed all uniformed members of the military, highway patrolmen, police officers, deputy sheriffs, National Guardsmen and "border patrolmen" between San Francisco and the Oregon border.

The letters were mailed from Berkeley. It took county, state and federal agents working in concert all of 15 hours to trace the missives.

They emanated from a back room in the Little Red Bookstore, an outlet for Maoist, pro-Viet Cong propaganda at 3191 Mission Street here, according to investigators.

Wanted

Intelligence agents have termed the letters the work of Jerri William Doeden, 32, operating from the Little Red Bookstore as Gino Savo. He formerly lived in Chico, where authorities hold a warrant for his arrest on non-support charges.

"As anarchists and revolutionaries go, he is strictly small potatoes," an agent for the State Department of Justice said.

"While he boasts of having hundreds of automatic weapons and talks of his legions now undergoing guerrilla training in the hills, the fact is he has scarcely half a dozen dedicated followers, and most of them can be classified as kooks.

"We do have true anarchists and revolutionaries in our midst, but he isn't one of them."

Another source said Doeden recently attempted to form a coalition with heads of the Red Guard and Revolutionary Union in the Palo Alto area and was rebuffed.

One potential disciple recently attracted to Doeden's operation is a former downtown San Francisco stock clerk who considers himself an expert on bombs and their source of manufacture.

Well known to intelligence agencies who discount his expertise, this prospective recruit under the pseudonym of "Claude," recently emerged in a local newspaper as an authority on bombs.

Exhibited were a number of crude bombs which he assertedly purchased on the open market. Agents say he made them.

Doeden was not to be found at the Little Red Bookstore yesterday. Nor was "Claude."

A young clerk named Sylvia behind the counter said "Gino Savo" had been called out on urgent business and that "Claude" had not been around for two or three days.

Posters

Revolutionary posters depicting the Venceremos cane cutting brigade in Cuba, revolutionist Emiliano Zapata and the facsimile of a Bank of America check showing the Isla Vista branch burning in the background, adorn the Little Red Bookstore walls.

Publications available include the Peking Review, Black Panther and National Guardian, along with books by H. Rap Brown and Jerry Rubin. Prominently displayed is a printed slogan: "Marxsmanship - Marksman-ship, dare to Fight, Dare to Win."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June of 1962 at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States; however, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings, but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968-1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969 NC:

Weatherman
Worker Student Alliance (WSA)
Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM)

The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois; however, it closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WEATHERMAN-1-~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969 Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention. At this convention, Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office in Chicago and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June of 1969 until its office was closed in February of 1970. At this time, it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows." ("New Left Notes" of June 18, 1969.) This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969 "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300-350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 per cent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three to five members would function independently. In February of 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February of 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS National Office, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference, it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the national office has no office space, but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970 NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, pro-black nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

APPENDIX

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June of 1962 at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States; however, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings, but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968-1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969 NC:

Weatherman
Worker Student Alliance (WSA)
Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM)

The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois; however, it closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.
